September 2019

September Worship Theme:

"Expectation"

"We need the sweet pain of anticipation to tell us we are really alive."
Albert Camus

Sunday, September 1, 2019

11am Service: "Expectations & Agreements: Moving Forward Together"

Sometimes we find ourselves at odds with our desires for ourselves, our congregation, and the world. Let's explore our commitment to the democratic process and see what the futures holds for us.

Worship Associate: Meredith Williams

Music: Jeff Crouse (Guitar & Vocals)

Expectation

It can be difficult having expectations. Through expectation we open ourselves to disappointment. The question I pose to you this month is this: Is it wise to protect ourselves from disappointment?

Pessimism is one form of protection against disappointment. Pessimism is one potent form of expectation. It's expecting the worst. The wisdom of this response is by expecting the worst, there is less of a chance of dire disappointment. It is a valid response to the unpredictability of a life that surprises and startles us in profound ways.

Great expectations may be perceived as the realm of fools. It could be argued that only a fool would expect pleasure and joy in a world that regularly delivers sadness and heartache. I am about to embark on a meditation retreat, called a sesshin in the Zen tradition. It will be a week of silence. Often it can be a difficult experience both physically and mentally for those are not accustomed to being silent and still for so long. I am one of those unaccustomed to this.

I was curious to read advice from those who have done a similar retreat, and I came across this piece of advice from Zen Master Robert Aitkin Roshi: You can survive retreat two ways. One way is to focus on just getting through it. The second way is to just be open to whatever happens, moment by moment. Both ways will get you through the retreat, but only the latter will make you grateful you did it.

Given this, I offer you a middle ground between pessimism and optimism: expect the unexpected, be open. Our expectations in our head are often too narrow to make space for the life that awaits us. The expectation of a life larger than our imagining is an expectation that can sustain us and make us glad. Embedded in this larger life will be disappointment, or things going differently than we wish they would. It will also include unexpected pleasure and joy, the kind of pleasure that can't be planned or expected. It is wise to anticipate this larger life, a life of both disappointment and pleasure.

This larger life awaits us in expectation. It waits for us simply to accept and surrender our limited ideas to its awesome presence in the place we are. It is our human birthright to have an expectation of living as fully as we can with the time we are given. The time we are given will include disappointment, but I don't think this means we should abandon expectation for a larger life that awaits us.

September Bits from the Board

It's been a beautiful summer. I personally treasure the time of year when we can go to our favorite farm stand and get fresh tomatoes and corn on the cob. I grew up with an appreciation for efficient and cost-effective food shopping, perfectly happy to get all my food at the nearest super-sized food market with "ok" food pretty much any time of the year. My wife Stephanie has given me an appreciation for local, truly fresh food and for getting to know the people who help bring food to my table. We know them by name and each time i show up they ask me if I'm ready for another jar of ghost pepper salsa that they stock just because I like it. Try that at the super-sized place, right?

My maternal grandfather was a farmer, and I have fond memories of visiting my grandparents each summer for the county and state fairs in Indianapolis, where both tomatoes and corn were plentiful and fresh.

Living in farm country as I do now, I get to travel along country roads that snake through lush green cornfields and my heart just sings. I also see all of these things as expressions of UU principles - especially respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part. I hope you are enjoying summer as much as I am.

There are many opportunities to get involved at UUYO throughout the year, with a vibrant climate change group taking shape and many other activities that you can find on our calendar each week and in the monthly newsletter. All are welcome to every activity that happens at UUYO, so if you are interested, just dive right in and figure things out as you go. If you think everyone who is already there has all the answers, that isn't the case! Join in and enjoy the process of finding your way through something new.

The 2020 stewardship program is taking shape. We have an experienced team running the program and are always looking for folks who are interested in helping out. It's really a great opportunity to get to know your fellow members and to have real conversations about why we care about UUYO, and about what we want to do to make sure it remains the vibrant community we want it to be.

At the August Board meeting, we welcomed Lisbet White as our newest Board member, filling in one of our vacant positions. Lisbet has been an energetic force at UUYO ever since the first time she visited, so we are excited to have some of that energy directed toward governance at UUYO.

Thank you for being a part of the UUYO community. Be sure to make your mark - show up, get involved. We welcome you!

Andy Crabb
Board President

UUYO's New Office Assistant

Greetings! I am so excited to start working at UUYO. I am from Gustavus, Ohio and have also spent some time in the Greenville PA area during and after college. I am a Thiel College 2014 Graduate. My husband Shawn and I have one son, an energetic 2-year-old named Tommy. For fun I love to make jewelry, paint, and try new crafts out. I also enjoy old movies and classic rock because I'm a bit of an old soul. It has been wonderful meeting so many of you already and I look forward to getting to know you and the community better.

From the Director of Religious Education!

It is time for Religious Education to start up again! Beginning September 8th, RE will be available during the service in the Children’s Chapel. For children under 5 who are unable to be in a classroom, childcare is available in the nursery.

As it is a new year and things have changed, RE will be evolving to fit the needs of the current congregation. If you have any questions about changes or just general questions, please feel free to email Director of Religious Education, Mystery Wallis, at dre@uuyo.org.

September 8
"Homecoming Sunday: Water Communion"

We are coming home to our sanctuary upstairs for this celebratory service. Please bring a small amount of water from a place that has had meaning for you. This will be an extraordinary event for the whole family.

Give Away the Plate

This program donates the undesignated collection at Sunday services to one specific charity per month. UUYO’s Give Away the Plate recipient for September 2019 is St. John’s Episcopal Church.

St. John’s Episcopal Church will host Diana Butler Bass, author of Grateful: The Transformative Power of Giving Thanks, Grounded: Finding God in the World-A Spiritual Revolution and Christianity After Religion: The End of Church and the Birth of a New Spiritual Awakening for a public lecture.

Bass weaves together social science research, spiritual wisdom, and contemporary issues as she calls for a richer understanding and practice of gratitude. What emerges are surprising insights about the power of thankful living to change how we treat one another, and how we might transform our world.

The event will take place at St. John’s Episcopal Church (323 Wick Ave., Youngstown, OH) on Tuesday, October 8 at 7 PM. Tickets are $15.

Book Group Activity

Book Group 1
September 17, 2019 5:30 pm in Channing Hall

The September meeting of Book Group 1 is on a different date and in a different place than usual.

This month we are part of the kickoff event for The NEA Big Read in cooperation with Lit Youngstown, the Public Library of Youngstown and Mahoning County, and the English Center.

To join in this community event start reading Into the Beautiful North by Luis Alberto Urrea, whose novel tells the story of teenage Nayeli who works at a taco shop in her Mexican village and dreams about her father who went to the United States when she was young. She realizes that he isn’t the only man who has left town; there are almost no men in the village as they have all gone north. While watching The Magnificent Seven, Nayeli decides to go north herself and recruit seven men—her own “Siete Magníficos”—to return her hometown and protect it from the bandidos who plan on taking it over.

Into the Beautiful North is available from libraries in Mahoning County in several formats: audiobook, eBook, paperback, and hardcover.

The September Book Group meeting will include a discussion of the book, followed by an ethnic potluck dinner. Following the dinner there will be a presentation of the Wick Poetry Center’s Traveling Stanzas, as well as presentations and narratives from recent Youngstown immigrants.

Book Group 2
Date to be announced later

This group will discuss The Nose by Gogol.

Book Group 3

September 10, 2019 7:00 pm at Satre home

After reading non-fiction by two major authors, Frederick Douglass and W.E.B. DuBois, our group decided to turn to fiction. We chose Beloved, Pulitzer Prize winner, and the most well-known work by Ohio native Toni Morrison. Sadly Ms. Morrison died in early August at age 88, after a remarkable life, having written novels, essays, plays, children's books, and nonfiction. She was awarded countless times for her writing, including the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1993.

Beloved is inspired by a story of a slave mother who, when apprehended under the Fugitive Slave Act, killed her child rather than return her to slavery. Morrison creates a ghost in her post-Civil War setting of this incident, and weaves around it the story of a family whose history of slavery impacts personality, behaviors, and relationships.

Join in the discussion of Beloved on Tuesday, September 10, at 7:00 p.m. at the home of Ellen and Lowell Satre, 1872 Goleta Ave. E-mail lesatre@gmail.com for directions or other information.

Interfaith Shabbat and Potluck

On Friday evening, August 23, 2019 the weather cooperated while about 60 people gathered on the shared lawn between UUYO and Congregation Rodef Sholom for an Interfaith Shabbat service.

Following the service, we enjoyed a potluck meal in the Moyer Room at Rodef Sholom with members of the next-door congregation as well as with folks from St. John's Episcopal Church, First Presbyterian Church, Woodland Park United Methodist Church, and members of the Wick Park Neighborhood Association. It became evident that an interfaith potluck is even more diverse and delicious than a UUYO potluck – which is to say, it was magnificent!

To paraphrase the words of Oliver Twist: 'Please, sir or madam, I want some more events like this.'

The World We Live In

Considering recent events in our country relating to violence against churches and social justice activities such as this congregation supports the Board of Trustees is working to implement structures and policies in line with the UUA's Becoming a Safer Congregation: A UU Guide to Effective Safety Policies and Practices.

We began with the installation of a keyless security system that is backed up by video and can be accessed remotely in the event of an alarm at the church building. The security system is working well, but needs the assistance of humans entering and leaving the building:

- Make sure doors close completely behind you – especially the handicap door facing Elm Street, which tends to “almost” close but does not actually close. Help it along and test to be sure it cannot be opened from the outside.
- If you are not sure if you are the last person in the building check to see if there is anyone in the church office or in the RE office.
- If you know there is only one person left in the building when you leave, make sure the block is not in the Illinois Avenue door.
- if you are the last person in the building and the people who left before you did not close doors the alarm will not set

We have established a Safer Congregations Committee, chaired by Judy DeGenova, to work on other issues of safety and security.

In June the UUYO Board of Trustees adopted a Policy Regarding Disruptive Behavior. That policy, along with all other Board policies, is available on the website and in notebooks outside the UUYO Office and in the Board Room.

"Entering Stillness"

September 11th, Wed. 6-7:30 pm, Schweitzer Lounge

Rev. Joseph recently experienced a weeklong silent meditation sesshin at Zen Mountain Monastery. As this is the 18th anniversary of the attacks on September 11th, come for a conversation on the role stillness can play in engaging fear and uncertainty. Families are welcome - there will be coloring books and other activities for children.

Please RSVP if you plan to attend by e-mailing jboyd@uuyo.org

"And How are the Children?"

September 25th, Wed. 6 -7:30 pm, Schweitzer Lounge

The Masai tribe in Africa would use the standard greeting with one another: "Kasserian Ingera," translated in English as "And how are the children?" The standard reply was the "All the children are well." How can we live into this affirmation in our community? Join the conversation. Families are welcome - there will be coloring books and other activities for children.

Please RSVP to Rev. Joseph if you plan to attend by e-mailing jboyd@uuyo.org

Northside Farmers' Market

Saturdays 10 am - 1 pm at UUYO through October

Meditation Group

Sunday, September 8 and 22 from 4-5pm

All are welcome to attend UUYO's meditation group on July 14 and 28 from 4 to 5pm. If it is your first time attending this group, please come 15 minutes early (3:45 pm) for some basic instruction.

The group will meet in the Youth Room at UUYO on the second and fourth Sunday of the month. Teachings will be presented in the Tibetan Buddhist tradition. We will be using the book The Places That Scare You by Pema Chödrön. Each meeting, the group will read a section of the book, have a short discussion, and then sit together in silent meditation. There is no fee for these meditation sessions - just bring a peaceful spirit, and an open mind. If you have questions, please contact Linda Scharf by phone at (412) 295-1171 or by email at spiritdancer2008@yahoo.com

Work Party

Saturday, September 21 from 10am-2pm

The third Saturday this month will be September 21. There is still plenty to do to spruce up the grounds before winter sets in, and to catch a few rays. Coffee and cold drinks gratis. Questions - call Bob Seibold, 724-981-4791.

Foreign Policy Discussion Group

Sunday, September 22 at 12:30pm

The fourth Sunday this month will be September 22. We will probably be winding up the Mideast and choosing new topics for the future. As always, please feel free to bring your own ideas, questions and comments. We will meet in Schweitzer Lounge. Questions - call Bob Seibold, 724-981-4791.

Newcomers' Circle
Sunday, September 22 from 12:30-1pm

Each month we hold an informal gathering of Newcomers and recent visitors. We create space to learn a bit more about our church and to consider ways to become involved. The Newcomers' Circles usually last no more than 30 minutes. It is a fun way to get to know other recent visitors and to get your questions answered.

We will meet in the Schweitzer Lounge, on the lower level down the Religious Education hall, at 12:15. Grab a snack, bring your children and join us!

For more information, contact Karen Lapidus at kklure@prodigy.net.

"Don't Wait, Just Tell Me!"
Friday, October 4th, 6 pm, Channing Hall

On Friday, October 4, come to UYO's first "Don't Wait, Just Tell Me!" quiz show fundraiser. You'll see friendly faces, hear horrible jokes, and learn some surprising

Refreshments will be served throughout the evening. There will be a silent auction from 6-7 pm, the show will run from 7-8 pm, and the 50/50 raffle and auction winners will be announced as soon as the show concludes.

Childcare will be provided... but booze will not, so BYOB!

Tickets are $12/person and will be available at church starting on Sunday, September 1 (and they can also be purchased at the door if they aren't sold out). All proceeds will go to UUYO. The event is open to all church members, friends of the church, and friends of friends of the church, so share the news!

Notes from Stewardship For the September 2019 UUYO Newsletter

Fall is coming, and this middle-aged woman's thoughts turn to ... matters of Stewardship?? Seriously, though, fall is the time of year that we at UUYO conduct the annual pledge drive that determines the financial viability of our beloved community for the coming year. It is when we take stock of our own personal financial situation, give deep discernment to how valuable this church is to us, and make a promise, or pledge, of support for the next calendar year. It is up to us to support our church, plain and simple. And it is up to each of us, individually, to do our part.

For those of you who have been part of UUYO or any other church, this will be a familiar ritual. For those who are new here, or perhaps new to a church community at all, this might be completely unfamiliar. In any case, we on the Stewardship Team hope you will take part in the annual pledging process with beginner's eyes. Stewardship is the sacred act of taking responsibility for what we value.

Our campaign theme this year is 'Pledge It Forward,' and we are trying something new.

As the triumvirate of Frank Bishop, Brian Konya, and I prepare to step back from leadership after 3 years of running the pledge drive, we are facilitating a process where each of you, and yes, we mean each of you (!) will be responsible for 'pledging' at least one other member/friend. Something new indeed! And something that will hopefully inspire a small handful of you to step
